MARKET SUMMARY:

Located in the Scarborough suburb of Clairlea, Eglinton Square acts as a community hub with a stable and loyal customer base from the surrounding high-density housing and nearby middle-income neighbourhoods. The area continues to grow due to its affordability and proximity to Toronto's downtown core, as well as the future Eglinton Crosstown Light Rail Transit (LRT) project. With an expected 2021 completion, the Crosstown LRT will link 54 bus routes, three TTC subway stations, Union Pearson Express (UP Express), and the Kitchener, Barrie and Stouffville GO Transit lines, and will have stops at the immediate east and west ends of Eglinton Square. The Crosstown LRT will help increase the ease of access to the shopping centre as well as drive a steady flow of commuters by the shopping centre.
