

RAHIM LADHA

Vice President, Corporate Communications

---

Rahim Ladha is a corporate communications leader with 13 years of experience in a variety of settings including federal government, state-owned enterprise and the private sector. In various roles, Rahim has held the primary responsibility of protecting and enhancing corporate reputation and representing the public relations and business interests of the organization and its executive leadership in the media and with key public stakeholder groups.

TORONTO

Presently, Rahim is the Vice President of Communications for Bentall Kennedy. In this role, Rahim is charged with leading internal/external communications, crisis and issues management, brand and reputation, advertising and media relations functions for Bentall Kennedy in Canada and the U.S. In addition, Rahim is responsible for leading the company's digital and social media program with full oversight over all web and multimedia properties. Rahim also leads Bentall Kennedy's corporate philanthropy program including oversight on charitable donations and NGO partnerships.

In a voluntary capacity, Rahim serves on the Ontario board of Business for the Arts and is a regional representative and volunteer for the St. John Ambulance Therapy Pet Program. Rahim holds an Honours Bachelor of International Business from Carleton University, a Master of Arts in Diplomacy from Norwich University and an Executive Certificate in Global Communications from Columbia University.